

DISCOVER PORTUGAL

Visit islands known for their arid and rocky landscape with strong and thriving seagull colonies, immerse yourself in black basalt lava pools created by the rising tide where seawater enters naturally, creating constant renewal, and you can relax while admiring the splendid seascape surrounding. If, on the other hand, you want a very special adventure, you can visit islands in the middle of the Atlantic Ocean known for their luxuriant vegetation of dense forests and a real explosion of blue and white hydrangea flowers, blue - green lakes located in the former volcanic calderas, breathtaking panoramic views of the Atlantic Ocean with whale watching, the oldest tea plantation in Europe and a rich cultural heritage.
