ISRAEL AND PALESTINE

WHERE WATER TELLS THE STORY: NAVIGATING SPIRITUALITY, CONTRASTS, AND NATURE

In this disputed and stratified land, sailing takes on a different meaning: it's not just about moving, but about slowly observing what elsewhere rushes by. Israel and Palestine offer the nautical traveler a mosaic of coasts, lagoons, and unexpected bodies of water, where the sea meets the desert and history is reflected in the water. From the eastern Mediterranean to the inland lakes, from the ancient ports of Jaffa and Akko to the silence of the Dead Sea, every landing is a point of contact between identities, religions, and landscapes that have spoken for millennia.

Far from pilgrimages and traditional religious routes, sailing in these areas offers a privileged perspective on a complex and extraordinary land. Fishing villages that have survived the test of time, nature reserves along the coast, settlements and protected areas overlooking the sea tell the story of a different Mediterranean, where spirituality, nature, and culture coexist in a fragile balance. Whether you choose sailing, catamaran, motor yacht, or a cultural cruise, the journey here is never merely geographical: it is a continuous encounter with the depth of meaning that only certain places can evoke.

After a stop in Jaffa, an ancient Phoenician port now a multicultural cultural hub, we continue toward the cliffs of Rosh Hanikra, on the border with Lebanon, where dazzling white sea caves open into the limestone rock. We then set sail for Akko (Acre), a Crusader city and a UNESCO World Heritage Site, stopping in the old port to explore the souk and the underground Templar chambers. The voyage continues south, touching nature reserves such as Nahal Taninim, with guided tours of freshwater and Roman canals. An itinerary that combines scenic beauty and historical depth, ideal for those seeking authenticity and discovery in one of the most stratified areas in the world.

PRE-CRUISE EXPERIENCE

Three nights in Tiberias, on the shores of the Sea of Galilee, a place of spirituality, myths, and biodiversity. Stay in family-run guesthouses or eco-lodges built with local stone, overlooking the Golan Heights. Explore the region's lesser-known sites, such as the village of Capernaum or the hot springs of Hamat Tiberias. Days include kayaking on the lake, birdwatching along the shore, and walks through olive groves and fields of aromatic herbs.

You'll attend small Sephardic music concerts, dine on organic farms, and participate in agricultural traditions that unite Arab and Jewish communities. The stay offers an authentic immersion in daily life in the north, amid shared kitchens, daily spirituality, and stunning natural settings. Tiberias thus prepares the traveler for a profound and contemplative experience, one that seeks not only the destination, but the meaning of the journey through the waters.

REASONS TO GO

This unique cruise traverses iconic territories and untouched landscapes: from the Sea of Galilee, you travel by land and boat along the Jordan River, passing villages, minor biblical sites, and hidden oases, all the way to the Dead Sea. Along the way, you'll visit reserves like Ein Gedi, hike through desert canyons, and experience floating in extreme salinity. On board and ashore, expert guides explain the landscape's complexity and the crucial role of water in a highly sensitive environmental and political context.

The experience alternates gentle navigation with moments of interaction with local communities, archaeological discoveries, and resilient agricultural traditions. Each stop offers an opportunity to understand the tensions and beauty of this disputed land, where water is a symbol of life, faith, and survival. A cruise unlike any other, for those who wish to go beyond the idea of religious tourism and discover the complexity of two peoples through the landscape that unites them: the ancient waters that still flow, despite everything.

UNITED ARAB EMIRATES

BETWEEN ANCIENT COASTS, HIDDEN MANGROVES AND INCENSE ROUTES

Sailing in the United Arab Emirates is an invitation to rediscover a less glamorous Persian Gulf, where ancient fishing ports, desert archipelagos, and marine reserves reveal a little-known side of the country. Beyond the Dubai skyline and the mirrored skyscrapers of Abu Dhabi, a world of tranquil bays, uninhabited islands, coastal communities, and seascapes opens up, blending modernity and tradition. The culture of water, deeply rooted in the history of the Emirates, is still expressed today in traditional fishing, pearl diving, and the wooden dhows that ply the sea.

From the mangroves of Khor Kalba to the cliffs of Musandam, from the coast of Umm al-Quwain to the islands off the coast of Abu Dhabi, nautical itineraries allow you to explore protected marine environments and ancestral landscapes in complete tranquility. Catamarans, sailboats, motoryachts, and themed cruises offer unique perspectives, far from mass tourism. Here, luxury can also mean silence, contact with nature, and immersion in the rhythms of a maritime culture that still has much to tell. Sailing in the Emirates is a journey between dunes and sea, technology and tradition, urban horizons and primordial silence.

SAIL PAST SANDY ISLANDS, MANGROVE RESERVES, AND HISTORIC PORTS IN THE GULF

WEEKLY ITINERARY BY SAILING, MOTORBOAT, CATAMARAN, AND MOTOR YACHT

- SENIORS / OVER 65 ACTIVE AND SAILING LOVERS BETWEEN PROTECTED NATURE AND MARITIME CULTURE

- PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES, ON EQUIPPED CATAMARANS OR MOTORYACHTS
- STUDENTS INTERESTED IN MARINE ECOLOGY, TRADITIONAL ARCHITECTURE, AND THE HISTORY OF THE PEARL TRADE
- LOVERS OF PHOTOGRAPHY, DESERT LIGHTS AND REFLECTIONS BETWEEN DUNES AND SEA

The voyage starts from Abu Dhabi, heading to the uninhabited islands of Al Aryam and Al Maya, paradises of fine sand and calm waters ideal for snorkeling and wildlife watching. The journey continues to Marawah National Park, where turtles, dolphins, and colonies of seabirds can be spotted in a fragile and fascinating ecosystem. After a stop at Sir Bani Yas, an island resort with a protected natural area and an ancient Christian monastery, the route turns to Dubai. Along the way, explore lesser-known areas of the coast, including the lesser-visited artificial islands and hidden coves of Umm al-Quwain. The journey concludes with a sail along the Dubai Water Canal, where the contrast between the calm of the water and the vertical energy of the city creates a dramatic and evocative finale. An itinerary that combines luxury and authenticity, nature and urbanity, to discover the lesser-known side of the Emirates.

Three nights in Sharjah, the cultural capital of the Emirates, in an authentic setting away from the hustle and bustle. Stay in boutique hotels housed in traditional homes in the Al Mureijah neighborhood, complete with shaded courtyards and contemporary art galleries. Days include visits to the spice souks, the Museum of Islamic Civilization, and the lively Al Khan waterfront. You'll participate in Arabic calligraphy workshops, dine at restaurants run by local families, and explore the salt pans and coastal wetlands of the Kalba Reserve. During your stay, you'll delve into the history of the incense routes with guided tours of ancient caravan routes and the city's historical archives. An excursion to Al Dhaid introduces you to the agricultural world of the inland oases, with date tastings and encounters with artisans who weave palm fronds to build traditional boats. This slow pace between sea, culture, and craftsmanship prepares the traveler for a cruise that also explores profound connections between landscape, identity, and shared memory.

REASONS TO GO

The cruise begins in Fujairah and winds along the eastern coast of the Emirates, reaching the Musandam Peninsula, an Omani exclave with spectacular scenery. Along the way, you'll visit villages accessible only by sea, crossing fjords and rocky inlets where the mountains drop sheer into the water. You'll snorkel in the clear waters, meet local fishermen, and listen to tales of the ancient routes of the Gulf of Oman. On board, historians and local experts delve into the millennia-old relationship between the sea and the cultures of the Arabian Peninsula.

Each stop is designed to offer authentic contact with coastal communities: you'll visit schools, women's cooperatives, and shipyards where wooden dhows are still built. The cruise is distinguished by its slow and respectful pace, with a focus on sustainability and listening to the local community. For those who wish to explore the Emirates beyond the urban landscape, this is a profound and refined experience, filled with light, silence, and stories that date back to ancient times but are still very much alive along the Gulf coast.
