

SOUTH CALIFORNIA

Southern California offers unique attractions in terms of nature, culture and fun entertainment.

NATURE

- Two characteristic islands not far from the cities: in one you can enjoy a typical Mediterranean landscape and in the other you can see one of the ten best beaches in America and a historic hotel where Marilyn Monroe starred in a famous film
- A golden beach with gigantic waves frequented by celebrities
- A rotating cable car that climbs vertically to a height of 1800 meters with a thermal excursion equivalent to that perceived when driving from Mexico to Canada
- A park with sand dunes 183 meters high
- A suggestive and supernatural expanse of mineralized salt water in constant evaporation

CULTURE

- The places where Frank Sinatra, Elvis Presley and other celebrities went to party in extravagant luxury villas
- A coastal resort with Tudor-style buildings, fine restaurants, elegant boutiques and multi-colored hot air balloon rides
- A house with circular rooms covered in stone and glass on three levels where, on May 1, 1967, Elvis Presley and his wife Priscilla spent their honeymoon
- The places where the famous movie Top Gun 1986 with Tom Cruise was filmed
- A USA Air Force NASA flight test facility where the pilot of the world's first supersonic flight took off and where the first space shuttles landed from their missions
- The place in Los Angeles where the ancient Mexican city was founded

FUN - ENTERTAINMENT

- Amusement and theme parks from the oldest to the most modern with adrenaline-pumping attractions for adults, games for children, aquatic animal shows and the film industry
- An annual competition with over 600 surfers, concerts, motocross and skateboarding
- An annual film festival of Hollywood stars featuring over 200 films from over 60 countries
