BETWEEN ATLANTIC CURRENTS, DISCREET ELEGANCE AND ARCHIPELAGOS SUSPENDED IN TIME

Bermuda isn't just a remote corner of the Atlantic: it's a crossroads of colonial memories, pastel architecture, sunken gardens, and traditions suspended between Europe and the Caribbean. Sailing along its rugged coastline means entering a world where every inlet tells of legendary shipwrecks, silent resistance, and a culture that has reinvented itself amidst coral reefs and ocean swarms.

The boats sail between secret atolls, pink beaches, and harbors that smell of mahogany and salt. The cruises chart routes off the beaten track of fast-paced tourism, allowing for profound experiences, authentic encounters with local communities, and immersion in the fragile nature of an archipelago that daily grapples with the balance between beauty and climate change.

Every bay invites discovery: Hamilton with its contrasts between colonial history and contemporary vibrancy, St. George's as a cradle of maritime tales and urban resistance, the southwestern coasts where the coral reef welcomes those who observe with respect. Here, the Atlantic is not just a backdrop, but a voice. And sailing between these islands becomes an intimate gesture of connection, listening, and wonder.

BERMUDA - BETWEEN SECRET BAYS, SEA CAVES AND SUBMERGED TRACES OF COLONIAL HISTORY

WEEKLY ITINERARY BY SAILING, MOTORBOAT, CATAMARAN, AND MOTOR YACHT

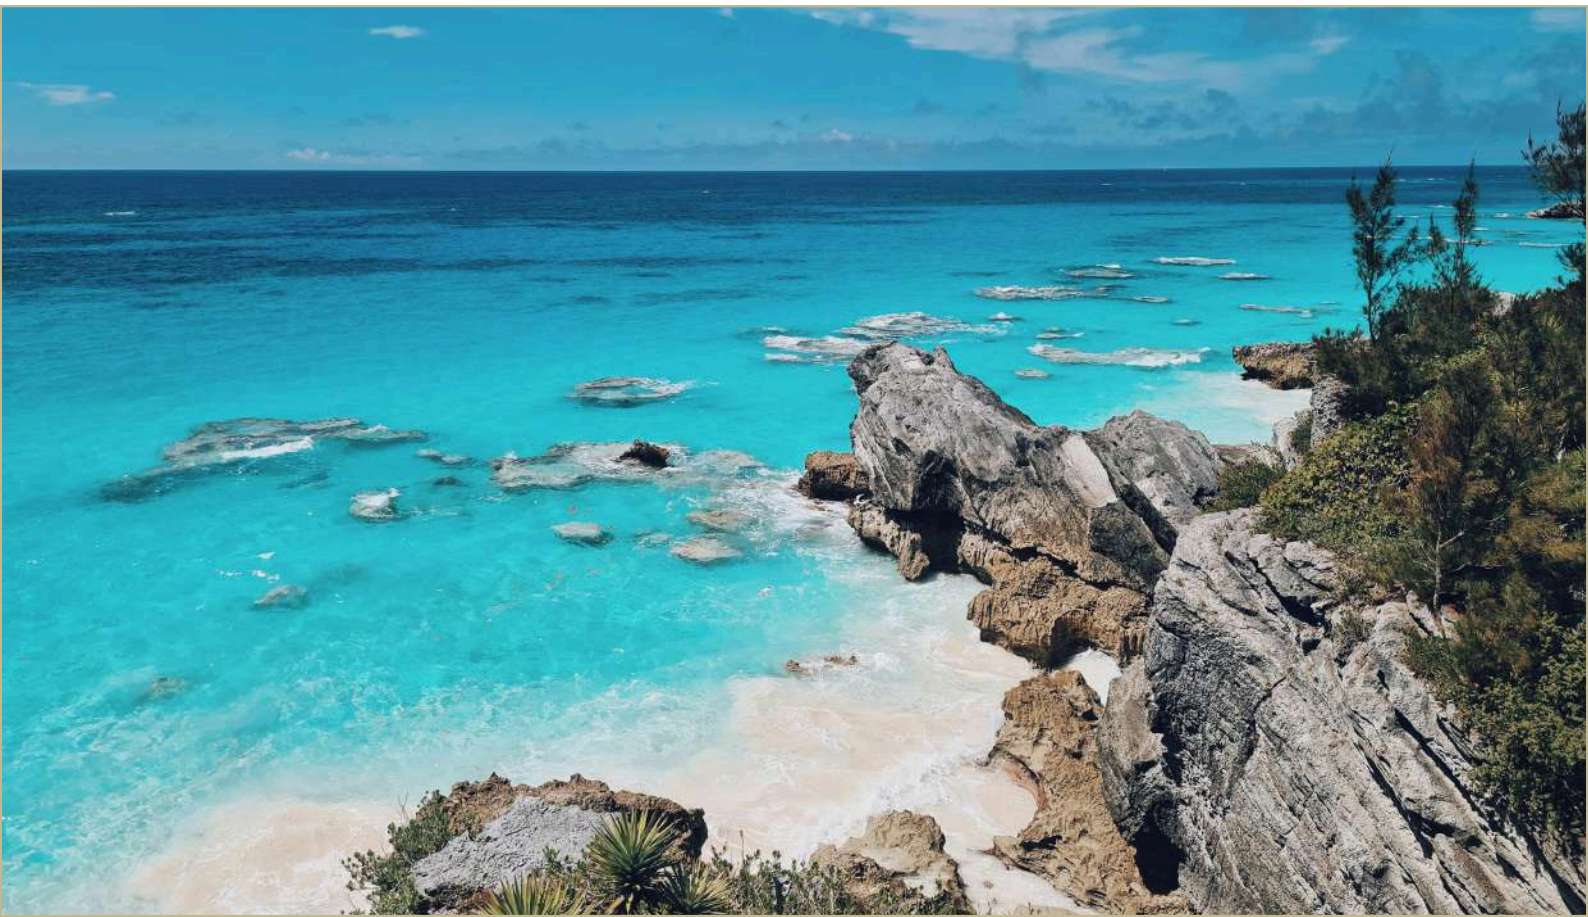

IDEAL SEASONALITY: FROM APRIL TO JUNE AND FROM SEPTEMBER TO NOVEMBER

SUITABLE FOR:

- HONEYMOONERS OR ANNIVERSARY COUPLES SEEKING INTIMACY AND TIMELESS ATLANTIC BEAUTY
- SENIORS / OVER 65S LOOKING FOR COASTAL NATURE, HISTORICAL HERITAGE AND TRANQUIL ATMOSPHERES
- FAMILIES WITH CHILDREN CURIOUS ABOUT ADVENTURES BETWEEN LAND AND SEA, NATURE AND CULTURE
- PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES, IF ON BOARD EQUIPPED CATAMARANS OR MOTORYACHTS
- STUDENTS WITH A PASSION FOR MARINE BIOLOGY, BRITISH HISTORY, AND OCEAN GEOGRAPHY
- LOVERS OF PHOTOGRAPHY, ISLAND FOLKLORE AND THE CHANGING LIGHTS OF THE ATLANTIC

An itinerary designed to sail among Bermuda's most fascinating yet less touristy islands, discovering an archipelago poised between colonial history, marine biodiversity, and island sophistication. The itinerary begins in St. George's, an ancient port and UNESCO World Heritage Site, where cobbled streets and Georgian homes introduce the traveler to a rich past of sailing ships, migrations, and maritime tales. The voyage continues toward Castle Harbour and Cooper's Island Nature Reserve, a still little-known protected area, where you can alternate snorkeling among coral reefs, hiking along coastal paths, and spotting rare birds.

The heart of the itinerary touches Mangrove Bay and Somerset Village, two hidden gems on the west coast, ideal for kayaking in the mangroves and encounters with local communities steeped in Anglo-Caribbean culture. South Shore Park and its secluded beaches, such as Jobson's Cove, offer moments of silence and contemplation, far from the tourist routes. The itinerary concludes with an exploration of the sea caves of Walsingham Nature Reserve and a dive among the sunken shipwrecks off the north coast, where naval history blends with marine life. A journey through Atlantic geography and colonial memories, it offers a new perspective on an archipelago at once refined and wild.

PRE-CRUISE EXPERIENCE

Three nights in the Flatts Village area, a quiet coastal village overlooking one of the island's most protected and peaceful bays. Stay in small, historic guesthouses overlooking the lagoon, immersed in a community that preserves the living memory of Anglo-Atlantic culture. Days alternate between visits to the marine aquarium and the karst caves of Blue Hole Park, kayaking along Flatts Inlet, and relaxing in the nearby botanical gardens. The experience is enriched by meetings with marine biologists and local custodians of the coastal landscape, who introduce the traveler to a profound understanding of the relationship between community and ocean. A slow, precious introduction that prepares the gaze and pace for the sea voyage that follows.

REASONS TO GO

The cruise follows a circular route through Bermuda's lesser-visited bays: from Hungry Bay, a mangrove reserve and biodiversity refuge, to Ely's Harbour and the pink cliffs of Whale Bay. Each stop offers access to natural and historical microcosms, such as the sunken shipwrecks in the Western Blue Cut area and the ancient British fortifications of Paget Island. The onboard experience is enriched by meetings with local experts and activities dedicated to naval archaeology, coral reef conservation, and the archipelago's nautical tradition. This cruise is designed for those who wish to experience the sea in a profound and mindful way, slowly navigating history, ecology, and refined ocean solitude.

GREENLAND

BETWEEN SCULPTED ICE, DEEP SILENCES AND ARCTIC RESILIENCE

Greenland is more than just the world's largest island: it's an interior continent, a landscape of light and ice where life pulsates silently yet tenaciously. Sailing along its jagged coastline means entering a world where time slows, glaciers tell age-old stories, and Inuit communities transform adaptation into an everyday art. Ships ply deep fjords, wind-sculpted icebergs, and villages that seem to float between land and sea. Cruises follow less traveled routes, avoiding major commercial routes and favoring remote landings where the encounter with nature and local culture becomes profound and transformative. Every stretch of coast tells a story: Ilulissat with its living glacier and the songs emerging from the ice blocks, Qaqortoq between urban art and Danish colonial memory, the villages of the South where Arctic tradition coexists with experiences of sustainability and self-production. Here the ocean is a living surface, changing with the light and climate, and sailing means learning to read the landscape with humility and attention.

GREENLAND - AMONG MAJESTIC FJORDS, INUIT VILLAGES, AND ANCIENT GEOLOGICAL MEMORIES

WEEKLY ITINERARY BY SAILING, MOTORBOAT, CATAMARAN, AND MOTOR YACHT

IDEAL SEASONALITY: FROM JUNE TO EARLY SEPTEMBER

- STUDENTS PASSIONATE ABOUT GLACIOLOGY, ANTHROPOLOGY, CLIMATE CHANGE, AND POLAR SUSTAINABILITY
- LOVERS OF PHOTOGRAPHY, ICE-SCULPTED LANDSCAPES AND THE EVER-CHANGING LIGHTS OF THE ARCTIC

Far from the cruise ship routes, this private boat itinerary explores Greenland's west coast, amidst deep fjords, Inuit villages, and utter silence. It departs from Nuuk, a vibrant and surprising capital city, where contemporary art and ancient Arctic legends coexist in museums and colorful streets. From there, you'll sail along the Kapisillit Fjord to the remote Qooqqut inlet, where you can savor freshly caught seafood in local restaurants accessible only by sea.

We continue towards the village of Qeqertarsuatsiaat, nestled between mountains and waters rich in wildlife: whales, seals, and sea eagles accompany the voyage along this still largely unexplored stretch of coast. The stop in Paamiut Fjord, amid floating icebergs and basalt cliffs, is an invitation to contemplate and discover the island's ancient geology. The itinerary concludes in Maniitsoq Bay, known as "the Venice of Greenland" for its maze of islets and natural channels: a place of archaic beauty and authentic encounters. Seven days of silent and powerful navigation, where every landscape is a story carved in ice and rock, and every village a point of contact between an ancestral past and a resilient future.

Stay in eco-friendly lodges overlooking the shifting glaciers, listening to the sound of ice floes breaking off and floating in the fjord. Days alternate between hiking with local Inuit guides, visits to the Climate Change Center, and moments of sharing with communities balancing tradition and adaptation. An intense introduction to the heart of Greenland, where the encounter with the landscape is also an encounter with the planet's deep time.

REASONS TO GO

The cruise follows a northwestern route, departing from Iulissat and visiting coastal villages such as Oqaatsut, Saqqaq, and Qeqertaq, connected only by sea. Each stop reveals a different Greenland: here, Inuit culture is still central, the rhythm of nature dictates the days, and the welcome is intimate and authentic. The landscapes alternate between ice-carved fjords, volcanic cliffs, and silent bays. On board, we organize in-depth discussions with experts on Arctic climate and culture, landscape photography activities, and Nordic cuisine featuring local products. A profound and mindful experience for those who wish to explore the Earth's extreme beauty with respect and wonder.

FAROE ISLANDS

BETWEEN MAJESTIC CLIFFS, LIVELY
FOLKLORE AND SEAS THAT TELL
ANCIENT STORIES

The Faroe Islands are more than just a remote archipelago in the North Atlantic: they are a mosaic of resilient communities, wild landscapes, and traditions intertwined with the rhythms of the sea and sky. Sailing among these islands means immersing yourself in a universe where nature reigns supreme, with spectacular cliffs, secluded coves, and a centuries-old cultural heritage.

The boats ply the often shifting waters, passing villages of colorful houses, windswept pastures, and trails that climb to mountaintops. The cruises favor less frequented landings, allowing for intimate and profound experiences with local communities and the discovery of a landscape as powerful as it is fragile.

Each island tells a different story: Tórshavn, the vibrant capital and guardian of a changing culture; Mykines with its puffin colonies and untamed nature; Vágur, where Lake Sørvágsvatn defies gravity as it plunges into the sea. Here, the sea is not just a border, but a bond. Sailing among the Faroes thus becomes a journey of discovery, listening, and genuine wonder.

Sailing the Faroe Islands means following ancient and silent routes, where every bay tells a legend and every cliff seems sculpted by the wind. This itinerary begins in Tórshavn, Europe's smallest capital, where you can experience a fascinating mix of Viking history and contemporary life. From there, we set sail for the island of Sandoy, past grassy villages, basalt formations, and local myths still alive in the collective memory. The journey continues to Skúvoy, a land of seabirds and ancient tales, ideal for cliff-top walks and bird-watching in complete silence.

A thrilling stop is Koltur, a now almost uninhabited island where time seems suspended: here, the grass-roofed houses and agricultural ruins speak of a civilization in symbiosis with the landscape. Next, the small port of Gjógv on the island of Eysturoy, with its natural fjord and musical traditions, offers one of the archipelago's most iconic views. The itinerary concludes between the wild bays of Kalsoy and the cliffs of Viðoy, where you sail among sea stacks and sea caves, spotting puffins, seals, and dolphins. Seven days of sailing in a world straight out of a Nordic fairytale, where nature reigns supreme and the local hospitality is sincere and discreet.

A rare journey, traversing vertical geographies and resilient cultures, leaving room for silence, discovery, and a profound connection with nature.

ICELAND

BETWEEN FIERY VOLCANOES, ANCIENT GLACIERS AND RESILIENT NORDIC CULTURES

Iceland is more than just an island in the North Atlantic: it is a natural laboratory of primordial forces, a place where earth, water, and fire meet in constant dialogue. Sailing along its coasts means crossing landscapes that seem suspended between legend and reality, with active volcanoes, black lava fields, and glittering glaciers reflected in silent fjords.

The boats sail through waters rich in biodiversity, past fishing villages, hot springs, and ancestral traditions that still tell stories of resilience and adaptation. The cruises venture beyond conventional tourist routes, favoring lesser-traveled destinations and authentic encounters with communities that live in balance between nature and modernity.

Each stop is an invitation to contemplation and exploration: Reykjavik, the vibrant and cultural capital; the Westfjords with their wild and isolated nature; the Vatnajökull and Snæfellsnes glaciers dominating the horizon. Here, the ocean is both a border and a gateway, and sailing in Iceland means immersing yourself in a world of contrasts, silence, and natural wonders.
